Mrs. James's LETTER of Thanks to the Q---n and both Houſes of Parliament, for the Deliverance of Dr. Sacheverell.

March 24*th*, 1710.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

THE Favours and Juſtice that hath been ſhew'd, to this famous Man Dr, Sacheverell in his Deliverance, obliges me to return my hearty Thanks for it, as believing your Majeſty; together with the Honoable Houſe of Lords were great Inſtruments of the ſame; for the which hope he and all true Chriſtians may firſt return Thanks to God, and then to your Majeſty and their Lordſhips, and that God in time will enable him to preach Peace to the Souls of true Believers, and open the Eyes of the Blinded, that they may ſee the Errors they walk in; and know when they have offended a merciful Judge and Saviour, which that he may ſo do is, and ſhall be the prayers of her who wiſhes your Majeſty a happy Reign, and after this Life eternal Glory amongſt God and his Angels----from her who wiſhes all peace to your Majeſty's Kingdom, and a bleſſed and happy Conqueſt over all your Publick and private Enemies,

My Lords and Gentlemen,

Tho' I am but a Woman think my ſelf much in Duty bound, to return due Thanks for the late Delivery of ſo good a Man? whom I believe did not want *E*nemies to make his Cauſe as black as could be, tho' at the ſame time he like a bold Champion and Servant of his God, bore all the Fateagues and Troubles put upon him with abundance of Patience; the which ſhews that beſides your Lordſhips extraordinary Favours towards him, like Daniel who was a good Servant to his Lord and Maſter, and ſtood all the Extreamities and Threats of ſuch who would have put him to the moſt ſevereſt Death even that of the Lions Den, where no Mercy was expected; God appeared and gave him a Heart to undergo all ſuch Suffering, and delivered him out of all thoſe Perils, which Nebuchadnezzar had clapt him into, notwithſtanding he was tied and bound in Chains, not one hair of his Head was hurt, even ſo it is in this Caſe of him, who preach'd Gods Word, a Meſſenger of the Lord; God I believe appeared in the Hearts of all you, and Delivered him out of all ſuch Perils, whom we ought ever to bleſs and praiſe.

And ſince it is ſo, I further all hope all ſuch who pretend to be the Miniſters of Chriſt may preach that Doctrine which is pleaſing to God and all true Chriſtians that walk in the ways of Godlineſs; to the Salvation of Souls, the pulling down the Whore of Babylon, and all ſuch who hate the Doctrine of true Believers, &c.

Gentlemen of the Houſe of C--mons,

Amongſt all other Thanks to her Majeſty, the Honourable Lords; To you alſo I return the ſame, for that you ſo Unanimouſly after ſo long a *De*bate, took all matters into your moſt wiſe and ſerious Conſideration, as touching the Caſe of him whom I believe wiſhes the peace of all *P*eople, and prays for the Converſion of ſuch who walk not in the paths of *C*hriſt and true *G*odlineſs; therefore am glad, and praiſe *G*od who in his *D*ivine *G*oodneſs open'd the Eyes of all thoſe who appear'd his Friends, and delivered him out of a Sea of Trouble; and laſtly doubt not but by his good Life, and ſound *D*octrine, he may bring over a many *S*ouls to his Lord and Maſter, to the honour of his Function, and their *S*ouls Welfare, is the prayer of her who returns due Thanks, E. James.

And to her Majeſt,'s moſt Liege and Loving Subjects, this is my Requeſt to al and every of you, that ſince all theſe great Debates and grant Conſults have ended in a happy Concluſion, to the great joy of all People; hope hereafter all Malice and Envy may Die, and that never more may Tumults be amongſt us, who writes our ſelves a Chriſtian People, and Leige Subjects to a Proteſtant and moſt Gracious Queen, and ever hereafter that you may leave all things to the wiſe Managment of your Superiours in all Caſes; ſo that it may redound to your Praiſe, Peace, and Honour, is the deſires of my Soul, who prays for her Majeſty, whom God grant long to Reign, E. James.

LONDON, Printed in the Year 1710.